POLITICAL NOTES

Workers for J. Louis Engdahl, Socialist candidate for alderman of the 15th ward, are asked to assemble at 2725 W. Division st. tonight for instructions. Engdahl charged last night that several known Engdahl voters had been scratched from the poll books.

Ald. Conrad H. Janke, candidate for re-election in the 35th ward, brought his campaign to a close last night and issued a statement predicting his victory.

James T. Igoe, Democratic candidate for city clerk, wound up his campaign with another verbal onslaught on the City Hall gang. Igoe predicts the election of himself, Clayton Smith and 26 Democratic aldermen, owing to the unpopularity of the Thompson-Lundin crowd.

Wanted: Volunteers to watch ballot count election day for 24th ward campaign committee of Socialist party. Get credentials Monday night at Social Turner hall, Belmont and Paulina.
